MORE ABOUT SALESFUSION

Salesfusion is an email and marketing automation platform. With a team of experienced marketers, we work alongside customers and can execute campaigns on their behalf.

We designed our platform with the typical marketer - and the typical small marketing budget - in mind. Native integrations with the major CRMs help get sales and marketing on the same page and make it easier to work together. Built by marketers, for marketers, every component packs a serious punch, yet is easy to use; from initially attracting prospects, to crafting communications to determining success and areas of improvement.

→ 12: Add Social Proof to Your Brand - Show reviews from your clients and to build more trust.

WE'RE FANS OF OUR CUSTOMERS. AND THEY'RE FANS OF US.

"We are excited about Salesfusion's function-rich, user friendly approach which is helping us get the most out of our marketing automation investment at a cost-competitive price."

-Ben Lazar

"We selected Salesfusion as our marketing automation platform for a variety of reasons, not the least of which is their integration with MS Dynamics. Their onboarding and trainings have been exceptional."

-Damion Chatmon

"We appreciate that Salesfusion has invested in tools and processes to replicate our workflows, emails and landing pages, thus providing us a seamless transition from Hubspot and ensuring our success with their marketing automation platform."

-Jonathan Dixon
